

A black and white illustration of a horse-drawn carriage. Two dark horses are harnessed together, pulling a large, ornate carriage. A driver is seated on the box seat of the carriage, holding the reins. The carriage has large spoked wheels and a high, arched roof. The scene is set on a simple ground line.

•THREE RIVERS•

par Anatole Walker

MONTREAL PAID JU22
1861
CANADA

A historical map of the Louisiana Purchase territory, showing the Mississippi River, major cities like St. Louis, St. Charles, and St. James, and various parishes and territories such as La Salle, St. George, and De Lery. The map is oriented with North at the top.

The map illustrates the municipality of Napierville, which is centrally located and labeled in large, bold letters. Surrounding municipalities are also labeled, including Mercier, Saint-Idore-de-Laprairie, Saint-Edouard-de-Napierville, Saint-Jacques-le-Mineur, and Napierville. Major roads are depicted with numbers in circles, such as 201, 209, 205, and 221. The Rivière Taconde is shown flowing through the southern part of the municipality. The map also shows various smaller roads and landmarks, such as the Saint-Edouard and Saint-Jacques churches, and the Napierville station.